

Smurfs

This movie tells the story of the Smurfs as they get lost in New York City and try to find their way back home before Gargamel catches them. As the Smurfs get ready for the Blue Moon Festival, Papa Smurf sees in his cauldron a vision of Clumsy Smurf reaching for a dragon wand and the Smurfs in cages while Gargamel laughs. Not waiting this vision to come true, Papa Smurf tells Clumsy that he is not allowed to pick Smurf Roots. Clumsy disobeys Papa and unintentionally leads Gargamel and Azrael to the village. The Smurfs all run for their lives while Clumsy runs toward Forbidden Falls with Papa Smurf, Smurfette, Grouchy, Brainy, and Gutsy running after him. They find him at the edge of a cliff, and while trying to help him up, they are sucked into the gigantic vortex that spits them out in modern day New York City.

To make matters worse, Gargamel and Azrael follow and the Smurfs end up in the apartment of Grace and Patrick Winslow, a married couple (expecting a baby) and their Basset Hound, Elway.

The Smurfs charm Patrick and Grace into helping them flee from Gargamel. Much chaos occurs, and in the process, Patrick, an advertising executive, sends what he believes is a finished advertisement to be published. However, the next day, Patrick learns that clumsy accidentally attached a blue-moon themed side project and he loses his temper before walking out on the Smurfs and Grace to save his job. Now the Smurfs have two goals: help Patrick to save his job and to escape from Gargamel and get back to their village.

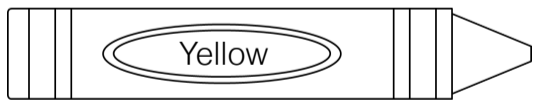

Where do the Smurfs end up?

What does Clumsy Smurf do to put the Smurfs in danger?

What two goals do the Smurfs have?

What is Clumsy Smurf not allowed to do?

What mistake does Patrick Winslow make?

What is "chaos"?

What are you doing if you are "fleeing"?
